

IMPAKT

Mee Ulrika Eriksson

PROFESSIONAL BIOGRAPHY

Mrs. Mee Eriksson is Executive Management Consultant with CARNEGIE WORLDWIDE, INC., a global management consulting firm specialized in international growth opportunities with offices located in the United States and Europe. In this role, she utilizes her background and hands-on experience in human resources/personnel, global expansion, including her business and cross-cultural knowledge and skills.

Carnegie is renowned for their successes in business change management, leading several large corporate turnarounds and consolidation/expansions through mergers and acquisitions, as well as organic growth through startups of subsidiaries and expansion of already existing businesses. The Company is a boutique consulting firm focused on highly specialized, multinational, strategic business consulting assignments and Board level international expansion planning for clients across the globe, as well as Retained Executive Search efforts for Vice President, President/CEO and Board-level positions.

Raised and educated in Sweden, Mrs. Eriksson transferred to the U.S. in 1999 to manage the expansion of a Swedish company in North America. She holds a Bachelor's degree in Organizational Psychology and a Master's degree in Business Law from the University of Lund in Sweden. Mrs. Eriksson possesses a strong background of over 15 years International experience from working with strategic and organizational development, knowledge management, and sales and marketing. She is the owner of Impakt, Inc., a business consulting and marketing company based in Atlanta, GA.

Prior to Impakt, she was the Vice President and Senior Consultant of ISL (Institute for Sales Training and Leadership Development) facilitating top executive teams in increasing their businesses' competitiveness, overseeing and project managing client's training processes and efforts to increase their employee performance. Mrs. Eriksson launched ISL in the U.S. in 1999, where she managed all aspects of the U.S. business including marketing, client-relations, personnel, and the bridge to the Swedish Headquarter.

The past immediate Chair, and former Executive Director for the non-profit organization, the Swedish-American Chamber of Commerce Georgia ("SACC-Georgia") Mrs. Eriksson was the Special Director for the Swedish-American Entrepreneurial Days Savannah 2009 organized by SACC-Georgia and the national organization SACC-USA. Mrs. Eriksson additionally served on the Board of the national organization The Swedish-American Chambers of Commerce USA, Inc. ("SACC-USA"), located in Washington, D.C. with over 2,500 members throughout the United States. Under her leadership as Chair and Executive Director, SACC-Georgia has become a major actor facilitating trade and investments between Sweden and Georgia and the organization has grown to become statewide with strong bonds to Georgia's State government agencies, plus local trade and industry organizations.

Mrs. Eriksson lives in the Greater NYC Area with her husband Lars.